New Haven here this afternoon.

Two games have been arranged for to-morrow in Hartford.

On Friday Jack Zeller and his hust ling band of Ponles will be here for one game at Newfield. Springfield is Fisher pitched for the Senators yes-terday and as a result Hartford and Holyoke are now tied for first place.

Bridgeport was travelling in high class yesterday when they went through the game without an error. It's many a day since such an event has happened in Oratordom.

Bertwhistle, as has been stated, was never black listed by Manager O'Rourke, but was given his release. so that he was free to play with any team in organized baseball, though he preferred to play with the outlaws. Bert was again on hand at New Haven vesterday with two doubles.

Pete Wilson, pitching for the New York Americans, yesterday, was an enigma to the Boston club, to whom he allowed only three hits, shutting them out 6-0.

Willie Keeler is to be manager of the Brooklyn Club next season, is the latest rumor in the Brooklyn streets. it's only a rumor, as nothing has been said by the Brooklyn Club officials. But the chances of the story being right are good, as Keeler will probably retire from active work on the baseball field after this season.

The State league race is becoming interesting, the Hartford and the Holyoke nines furnishing the fireworks. The Papermakers have a good com-bination in their present makeup, while the Senators show few signs of slumping. Unquestionably the next six weeks of the season will furnish ch food for the fans to talk about, and the Connecticut league will live up to its rep of having a grand race.

The option on "Swat" McCabe, held by the Pittsburgs, expired yesterday, the Pirates not taking it up, and as a result the league's heaviest hitter will remain in New Britain for a while at least. Bridges of Northampton has however been sold outright to the Na-

Manager Hanna, of the New Britain club, received word from Marsans yesterday that he would arrive in New York on Friday and would immediately come to the Hardware town. Marsans is back in the game on the de-mand of the New Britain fans.

Manager O'Rourke has located his new second baseman, Sweeney. The absent one is at his home in Brooklyn Manager O'Rourke has notified him to report in this city on Friday so as to be in the double header with New Britain on Saturday in the latter Vive Lindaman, the only member of Boston Nationals who was with that team prior to the reign of the late George Dovey has been handed unconditional release by that club. Cant McCormack of the Holyoke club. but the Papermaker owners could not see fit to break up their crack infield, and probably get into a bad slump.

With the sale of James Vaughn leading left handed pitcher of the Macon South Atlantic League club, to the Brooklyns, for $1,300, there will be a case for the National Commission to eattle. The New York Americans claim the player alleging that he was left at Macon this year under an optional agreement, while former owners of the Macon franchise sold Vaughn to former Pony, will join Cupid's league. The bride hails from Wilkesbarre, Pa. The honeymoon trip will be a swing around the Eastern league circuit with Chie Hartley, formerly with Hol-yoke, is batting up to his old gait in the Tri-State league, leading that organization with an average of .380 for 67 games.

Jimmy Clinto, who twirls for many New York clubs, will help out the New Britains in their double headers. He will be in New Britain to-day against Waterbury and will also be on deck another game with the Orators on Zeller of Springfield has fallen into the same line as a number of the managers of this league are doing that is signing players who have been given a chance on clubs in this league and failed to make good. On Monday Zeller signed Cox and Slattery, both former New Haven first basemer They will be given a chance to show which is the better man. It's a hard road to travel for the Ponies to land a man the equal of Bill Yale.

The Cleveland club has asked for waivers on Pitcher Fred Falkenberg Falkenberg along with Dave Altizer was sold to the Naps last season by the Washington club. Altizer has gone to the Chicago Americans, while it is stated Falkenberg will probably land up as a Highlander.

MURRAY HOLDS UPPER HAND IN DONLIN DEAL

'Felix Isman declared himself quickly," said a baseball man yester-day. "He jumped at conclusoins when he announced the deal of Mike when he announced the deal of Mike Donlin. He reckoned entirely without Manager Murray. Isman is not well posted as a baseball, affirs else he would have cinched the deal before making the details public. It is safe to say now that the tranaction is permanently blocked. McGraw was up to snuff, however, and would have had way the best of it by securing Magee and Moren, for he knows that Donlin, because of his physical condition, cannot play in his old form again. Murray is next to Donlin's condition, and that is why he has blocked the deal."

is why he has blocked the deal."

President Johnson of the American League is among those who hold Murray in esteem. It is a fact that the Boston Americans were hot on Murray's trail when he signed with the Philadelphia člub. Isman, by the way, paid $25,000 several years ago for the horse Electioneer, and got a lemon.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

The Highlanders came home yester-day and played like a much better rganized team than they were they went away. At least they beat the Bostons decisively, backing up the excellent pitching of lissome Pete Wilson in good style. The Athletics seem-ed to be glad to get back east, for they won two games from the Washingtons. The Detroits, with the mighty Summers in the box, won from the Clevelands. One run has been scored off Summers in the last thirty-six in-nings he has pitched. The results: New York, 6; Boston, 0.

The Papermakers did not stay league leaders very long for they were play-ing in Hartford yesterday against the Senators and as a result both teams are now tied for first position. The Orators came unto their own and put a crimp into the winning streak of the Authors, which had gone on for nine straight.
